Mary K. Tompa

Director, Program/Budget Coordination Division
Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy
(Financial Management and Comptroller)

Ms. Tompa is currently responsible for preparation of DON budget guidance and procedures; control and coordination of budget submissions; coordination of reclamas to SECDEF PBDs/RMDs; development and operation of IT systems in support of the budget formulation process at the DON headquarters level; administration of financial control systems and procedures for the apportionment, allocation of funds, and the reprogramming process; and, preparation of fund authorization documents.

From April 2005 to November 2009, Ms. Tompa was the Director for the Civilian Resources and Business Affairs Division (FMB4) within the Office of Budget, OASN(FM&C) responsible for reviewing, recommending, and revising financial estimates for the Navy Working Capital Fund, civilian personnel, Information Technology, and contractor services for inclusion in the budget and justification of these estimates to OSD/OMB and the Congress. This equates to oversight of ~$70 billion and ~200,000 personnel.

In April 2005, Ms. Tompa was appointed to the Senior Executive Service. She has 27 years of Federal Service.

From November 1998 to March 2005, Ms. Tompa was the Deputy Director of the Program/Budget Coordination Division (FMB-3B) within the Office of Budget, OASN (FM&C), responsible for coordinating the overall appraisal of the DON budget and budget process to ensure the development of a cohesive and balanced program. Prior to this, from September 1993 to October 1998, she served as the head of three branches within the Operations (FMB-1) and Investment/Development (FMB-2) Divisions within the Office of Budget, OASN (FM&C): Combat Weapons/Support, Operating Forces, and Shipbuilding and Other Procurement. In these positions she was responsible for the financial review of all Operation and Maintenance, Navy programs including readiness, combat operations, training and administrative support, as well as all Navy shipbuilding and C4I investment programs.

Ms. Tompa served as the lead financial analyst for Family Housing programs in the Military Construction Directorate within the Office of the Undersecretary of Defense (Comptroller) from September 1992 to August 1993, responsible for the full spectrum of the budget process at the OSD level.

Ms. Tompa began her career within the Office of Budget, OASN (FM&C), as the lead aircraft operations financial analyst, responsible for the review of aircraft operations programs from July 1990 to August 1992. Upon completion of the Centralized Financial Management Training Program in October 1986, she worked as a financial analyst, then branch head, for the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command from November 1986 to June 1990, responsible for the formulation, preparation, presentation, execution, review, and defense of C4I operations programs.

In addition to her Department of the Navy duties, Ms. Tompa is a member of the Finance Council for St. Mary Star of the Sea Church.

Ms. Tompa graduated from the University of Maryland with a bachelor's of science degree in finance and from Marymount University with a master's in business administration degree. She is a recipient of the Superior Civilian Service award. She is a member of the Washington Chapter of the American Society of Military Comptrollers.