Richard C. Voigt

Comptroller
Commander, Navy Installations Command

Mr. Voigt is the Comptroller for the Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNIC). CNIC is responsible oversight of all Navy shore installations world wide. As the Comptroller, Mr. Voigt has executive leadership responsibility for approximately $6.6B in appropriated resources annually and is responsible for directing financial management functions for the Command providing comprehensive, authoritative financial management policy, support and services.

Mr. Voigt was selected to the Senior Executive Service in December, 2009 and has 30 years of experience in Government Financial Management, 28 of them with the Department of the Navy.

Immediately prior to his selection, Mr. Voigt spent 14 years in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Financial Management and Comptroller in a variety of leadership positions. His most recent position was the Deputy Director of the Operations and Manpower Division which was responsible for Operation and Maintenance, Military Personnel, Supplemental and Overseas Contingency Operations appropriations totaling over $80B annually. He also served as Deputy Director of the Civilian Resources and Business Affairs Division, Special Assistant to the Associate Director of the Office of Budget and the Head of the Departmental Supply and Civilian Resources Branch.

From 1986 to 1996 Mr. Voigt held various positions within the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command. He began as a senior budget analyst in the Acquisition Division and then served as the Operation and Maintenance Branch Head in the Comptroller's office. He then became the Director of the Financial Management Division in the Warfare Architecture and Engineering Directorate.

Mr. Voigt began his federal career with the Marine Corps in 1980 where he served as a financial analyst in Morale, Welfare and Recreation and then with the Marine Corps Weapons Procurement Branch where he was responsible for cost estimating and budgeting to support new and replacement weapon systems. In 1985 he then left the Department of Defense to become the Budget and Management Officer for the Office of Management and Budget within the Executive Office of the President.

Mr. Voigt graduated from Old Dominion University in 1979 where he earned a bachelor's of science degree in business administration. In 1987 he completed the Department of Defense

Graduate Level Financial Management Program and was awarded master's degree in public financial management from the American University.

Mr. Voigt was awarded the Department of the Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Medal in July 2001 and February 2010 and has received numerous performance awards throughout his career. He has been a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers since 1990.

Updated 2-11