

Topic	Issue
1 An NAE Primer	August 2008
2 The NAE Goes Green: The Navy Marine Corps Partnership	November 2008
3 FY 2008 Accomplishments of the NAE	February 2009
4 Boots on the Ground (BOG) / Boots on the Deck (BOD)	May 2009
5 NAE Total Force Cross-Functional Team (TF CFT)	August 2009
6 Navy Task Force Energy and Aviation Working Group	October 2009
7 NAE Corrosion Prevention Team	November 2009
8 Selected CY 2009 Accomplishments of the NAE. Better processes = More efficient delivery of readiness!	January 2010
9 Future Readiness Cross-Functional Team ... results that endure!	February 2010
10 Aviation Rapid Action Team (ARAT)	June 2010
11 NAE leadership changes are an opportunity to consider past performance and to look ahead.	July 2010
12 MALSP II: Enabling 'world-class' Marine Corps, Navy, and Joint Aviation Logistics	August 2010
13 Naval Aviation Enterprise (NAE) Strategic Planning for Energy Efficiency	October 2010
14 Fleet Readiness Centers (COMFRC) Mission	November 2010
15 Results of an Enterprise Approach – Better, Smarter, Faster, Combat-Ready Forces....now and in the future!	March 2011
16 The Centennial of Naval Aviation (CoNA) – a legacy of progress and achievement – a future of continued innovation	March 2011 (Special Edition)

17	Future Readiness Cross Functional Team (FR CFT) – “Readiness” and “Capability” treated equally	May 2011
18	Enterprise Principles – The Heart of the Matter (Cross-functional process thinking)	July 2011
19	NAE Total Force (the diverse mix of Sailors and Marines, government civilians, and contractors within Naval Aviation)	August 2011
20	The Leadership Strategy Process Initiative (developing the MV-22 roadmap to increase cost-wise readiness)	September 2011
21	Naval Aviation: Judicious Use of Resources (calling for increased focus on the judicious use of resources)	December 2011
22	Selected 2011 Accomplishments: Naval Aviation’s Enterprise Approach Improves Cost-Effective Readiness	January 2012
23	Naval Aviation: Working together to improve personnel and equipment readiness	April 2012
24	Future Readiness Initiatives – Advancing Naval Aviation readiness while reducing Total Ownership Costs, now and in the future	June 2012
25	Integrated Resource Management Team (IRMT) – Championing Cost Management and External Integration	October 2012
26	Restating the NAE purpose: 1) NAE is focused on the warfighter. 2) Advancing and sustaining Naval Aviation capabilities is a team effort.	November 2012
27	Total Force Cross Functional Team (TF CFT) – Projects Ongoing	January 2013
28	Year-In-Review 2012: Naval Aviation’s enterprise approach targets readiness degraders and cost drivers	January 2013 (Special Edition)
29	USS Enterprise inactivation includes the largest material reuse plan in Naval history	February 2013
30	Naval Aviation Vision, Strategy and Guidance – An Aligned Way Forward	April 2013
31	Future Readiness Initiatives – Seeking innovative ideas to improve readiness while optimizing costs	June 2013
32	NAVSUP WSS – Supporting Naval Aviation through Performance Based Logistics	September 2013
33	Gerald R. Ford (CVN 78) Christening in Newport News, Va.	November 2013
34	2013 Year-in-Review: A selection of what you have achieved working together as a Naval Aviation team	February 2014

35	Aircraft Carriers and Embarked Air Wings: Responsive, Relevant and Affordable	April 2014
36	The Call for Future Readiness Initiatives—Helping Naval Aviation Improve	May 2014
37	Public-Private Partnerships (PPP) & Performance-Based Logistics (PBL)	June 2014
38	F-35B Lightning II Initial Operating Capability (IOC)	October 2014
39	Efforts to Sustain the Long-Term Health of Naval Aviation	January 2015
40	2014 Year in Review	January 2015
41	NAE Leadership/Enterprise Principles	February 2015
42	Applying Current Readiness Performance Measures in the Planning and Execution Processes	April 2015
43	The Future Readiness Cross-Functional Team and its Annual Call for Initiatives	May 2015
44	Naval Aviation Enterprise (NAE) Stakeholders’ Efforts to Improve F/A-18 Readiness	June 2015
45	Naval Aviation Stakeholders Meet for NAE Supply Summit	October 2015
46	Tactical Aviation Inventory Management Lessons Learned	October 2015
47	Naval Aviation Readiness Recovery Plan	January 2016
48	2015 Year in Review – Highlights of Naval Aviation’s Enterprise Efforts	March 2016
49	Naval Aviation Efforts to Measure and Improve Enlisted Maintainer Experience	May 2016
50	Launch of POM-19 Future Readiness Initiatives Process	May 2016
51	Engineering, Maintenance and Supply Chain Management Team Efforts	August 2016
52	The Value of Naval Aviation “Enabler” Accounts	September 2016
53	Readiness Recovery and Sustainment Plan Update	November 2016