MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Subj: FY-17 OFFICER ACTIVE DUTY FOR SPECIAL WORK MILITARY PERSONNEL NAVY FUNDED ORDERS, DEFINITE MILITARY PERSONNEL NAVY FUNDED RECALL ORDERS TO ACTIVE DUTY, AND VOLUNTARY CONTINGENCY RECALL ORDERS ORDER WRITING POLICY DECISION MEMORANDUM

Ref: (a) CNP memo dtd 1 Feb 06
    (b) Title 10 U.S.C.

Encl: (1) Sample ADSW/MPN Recall/VCR 1095 Policy Waiver Request

1. Reference (a) defines orders issued under section 12301(d) of reference (b), in support of contingency operations, as Volunteer Contingency Recall (VCR) Orders. Per section 115 of reference (b), officers on ADSW (Active Duty for Special Work), MPN (Military Personnel Navy) Recall, or VCR who cross the 1,095 day threshold in the previous 1,460 day period will continue to count towards active component end strength. Orders crossing the 1,095 day threshold shall not routinely be written. Commands desiring exception to this policy shall route a waiver request, per the sample in enclosure (1). Additionally, officer FY-17 orders, if approved, will be written with the following constraints:

   a. ADSW. Any officer that begins FY-17 over 1,095 will have orders commencing no earlier than 3 October 2016 and terminate not later than 22 September 2017. Any officer that is projected to cross 1,095 during FY-17 orders will have orders terminate not later than 22 September 2017.

   b. MPN Recall. For accountability purposes, MPN Recall orders are included in this Memorandum for the Record process. Without an approved waiver, any officer who begins FY-17 in a recall or ADSW status and is projected to cross 1,095 days during FY-17 shall have an orders termination date not later than 22 September 2017.

   c. VCR. Without an approved waiver, any officer that is projected to cross 1,095 days during FY-16 on VCR orders shall have an orders termination date not later than 22 September 2017.

2. PERS-46/PERS-92 will provide N100 and N13 an approximate FY-17 annual forecast of 1,095 officers not later than 16 September 2016 and updates to actual counts throughout FY-17 on a monthly basis.
