2. Contents of Communication. The written communication, defined as a letter to the board president and signed by the eligible officer, may call the board’s attention to any matter that the officer considers important. The officer’s written communication may include (as enclosures) correspondence from any individual concerning the eligible officer. Correspondence not originated by the eligible officer, including endorsements to the officer’s letter and letters written on behalf of that officer, must be accompanied by a written letter to the board president and signed by the eligible officer stating he or she desires the enclosed correspondence be presented to the board. Correspondence that contains classified information will not be accepted.

3. Correspondence Due Date. Correspondence must be received by Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM), Customer Relations Management Department (PERS-1) not later than 2359 on the day prior to the board convening date.

4. Submitting Board Correspondence. There are several ways to submit board correspondence. Regular mail is preferred. Please note that the address for commercial shipping is different than sending board correspondence via the United States Postal Service (USPS). Each board has a three digit number, which is preceded by the fiscal year for that board. For example, the board number for the FY-13 active O-5 line promotion selection board is "13230". Additionally, for the following examples, "FY-YY" indicates the "YY" should be replaced with the applicable fiscal year. Finally, board numbers may be found on that board's respective page or the board schedule. All board correspondence should include the correct board number.
