Reductions/Shutdowns

PATH TO YES

1. Does moving the proposed new reenlistment date to within the shutdown period still meet 35 days from original submitted date?
2. Does the member still meet all current NAVADMIN and OPNAVINST 1160.8A requirements when moving the reenlistment date to within the shutdown period?

35 Day Waivers

---

- Must NOT be the fault of the sailor
- Requires ISIC endorsement
- By direction signatures are not authorized
- Normally takes 1-2 business days for a response
- Short fused orders/school house students

Early reenlistment Policy

- OBLISERV for orders (released orders not penciled in, not promises etc... Same FY as detaching month)
- Will pass through an SRB zone of eligibility within 12 months of EAOS. (this means passing out of the zone)
- Extend for the OTT program. (this is only to get a sailor to grad date.)
- Hold a nuclear operator/supervisor NEC.
- Must OBLISERV to maintain entitlement to CONSUBPAY (can't sign extension)

Rejections

- Waiting on C-way
- Not necessarily a bad thing (gets the 35 day clock started)
- Method of Formal Communication
- Briefing your Chain Of Command
- Common rejections
  - 35 day requirement
  - Extensions improperly submitted
  - Orders do not require OBLISERV
