Seabees provide a wide range of military construction including roads, bridges, bunkers, airfields and logistics bases. Navy Expeditionary Combat Command’s (NECC) Seabee units adapt to mission requirements of being scalable and agile. Seabees provide military support for disaster preparation and recovery, including assistance to civilian agencies. They are capable of protecting their projects and themselves around the world. In addition, Seabees complete civic action projects that complement nation building programs and are known for their worldwide humanitarian efforts.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Constructing and repairing aircraft runways and parking aprons.
- Constructing munitions storage areas and large scale camp sites.
- Erecting bridges and constructing roads.
- Renovating schools, medical clinics and municipal facilities.
- Repairing piers and wharves, underwater and above.
- Constructing border outposts, expeditionary camps, community outreach centers and medical clinics.

We Build, We Fight!
Seabees at a Glance

Navy Expeditionary Combat Command oversees 8,546 Seabees worldwide. Naval Mobile Construction Battalions (NMCB) deploy regularly around the globe to support combatant commanders.

Naval Construction Groups
The mission of NCG ONE and NCG TWO are to organize, man, train and equip naval construction forces to provide supported commanders with expeditionary engineering forces capable of general engineering and construction and limited combat engineering across the full range of military operations.

Underwater Construction Teams
The mission of UCT ONE and UCT TWO is to provide construction, inspection and repair of underwater facilities such as wharves, piers, underwater pipelines, moorings, and boat ramps.

Construction Battalion Maintenance Units
The mission of CBM 303 and CBMU 202 is to provide maintenance and construction support to military bases on both coasts to construct and maintain base camps and fleet hospitals.

Naval Construction Regiments
The mission of 22NCR and 30NCR is to exercise operational command and immediate control of two or more Naval Mobile Construction Battalions or other Naval Construction Force Units operating in a specific geographical area of responsibility in support of a specific military operation.

Naval Mobile Construction Battalions
The active duty battalions assigned to NCG 1 are NMCB 3, 4, 5 and reserve battalions NMCB 18, 22, and 25. The active duty battalions assigned to NCG 2 are NMCB 1, 11, 133 and reserve battalions NCMB 14, and 27. The mission of these battalions is to provide military construction support in military operations, construct base facilities, conduct defensive operations and also perform specialized construction such as water well drilling and battle damage repair.

3,849 Reserve

4,697 Active