R&R, NCR&R, and Emergency Leave are the only types of leave that include travel expenses.

2. Foreign Service Members assigned or serving under a U.S. Military Command are not authorized participation in the R&R Leave Program.

1. All Service members must be in R&R areas in which dependents are restricted.

Notes:
R&R program will NOT reimburse any cost associated with missed events (i.e. cruises, tour packages, weddings) due to delayed R&R flights.

5. Extensions of R&R leave are not authorized. Soldiers extending beyond the approved chargeable R&R leave period must be changed from R&R leave to another duty status. An exception to policy must be sent to USARCENT G1 requesting to combine R&R leave with another authorized duty status, in the same manner as ETP's are requested to combine emergency leave with RR leave travel.

3. Contractors are ineligible to participate in the R&R Leave Program.

Military Personnel Only
SM may take 15 consecutive days of R&R between 60 days after arrival and 60 days prior to redeployment. Foreign Members, DOD CIV and CTR are not eligible for NCR&R.

Maximum of 15 consecutive days of R&R between 60 days after arrival and 60 days prior to redeployment. Foreign Members, DOD CIV and CTR are not eligible for NCR&R.

Only one R&R per 12 month tour, DoD CIV will take up to 21 days R&R per CY. DOD CIV assigned to Afghanistan, Pakistan, or Iraq can take up to (3) R&R within 12 mo.
