This Summary of Changes provides a brief description of changes made to the Navy Uniform Regulations since the last update in 16 October 2015. For specific details of those changes, see the noted chapter, section and article.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Chapter 6, Section 6, article 6601.4, SPECIAL UNIFORM SITUATIONS FOR NAVY PERSONNEL ASSIGNED TO AND SERVING WITH AN ARMY UNIT.

Remove: "4. SPECIAL UNIFORM SITUATIONS FOR NAVY PERSONNEL ASSIGNED TO AND SERVING WITH AN ARMY UNIT. This article describes Navy policies regarding those special uniform situations for Navy personnel assigned to and serving with an Army unit.

(1) Navy personnel assigned to and embedded in an Army unit that meets the criteria of special uniform situations are authorized to wear the Army Combat Uniform (ACU). Sailors wearing the ACU will do so in accordance with U.S. Army Uniform Regulations. The following additional regulations apply to Navy personnel wearing the ACU:

a. Headgear. Sailors shall only wear the patrol cap or ACU sun (Boonie) hat as authorized headgear when not wearing the Kevlar helmet. Sewn-on or pin-on rank insignia are authorized on the ACU patrol cap, ACU sun hat, and Kevlar camouflage cover.

b. Identification Tapes. Name, rank insignia and service name tapes shall be made with universal camouflage background. The placing of rank insignia will follow Army guidelines. Name tape is authorized on the patrol cap.

c. Identification Badges. Skill badges/skill tabs, and identification badges are not authorized.

d. Unit Patches. Army Unit patches and the First Navy Jack (Don’t Tread On Me) patch are authorized for wear at the discretion of the local U.S. Army Commander.

e. Insignia. The wear of subdued pin on a breast insignia (primary warfare only) is authorized in garrison (ie. CONUS) at the discretion of the local U.S. Army Commander. The wearing of subdued breast insignia while deployed is permitted on forward operating bases or in areas that do not require the wear of personnel protective equipment at the discretion of the local U.S. Army Commander. Sewn on devices are not authorized.

f. U.S. flag. U.S. flag insignia shall be worn in accordance with U.S. Army Uniform Regulations.

g. Footwear. As authorized by local U.S. army commander.

h. Handbags. As authorized per local U.S. army commander.

i. Optional Outerwear. Green or Black Fleece Liner of the gortex cold weather coat is authorized.
(2) The ACU will be loose fitting and comfortable; alterations to make them fit tightly are not authorized. The only alterations authorized are those listed in AR 700-84. Items should be fitted loosely enough to allow for some shrinkage without rendering the garment unusable.

(3) The wear of organizational clothing for inclement weather conditions or other applicable purposes is permitted as directed by the local U.S. Army Commander.

(4) Sailors may request reimbursement for all costs directly associated to required purchase of uniform items not previously issued by submitting form SF 1164 via their chain of command.”

Add: "4. SPECIAL UNIFORM SITUATIONS FOR NAVY PERSONNEL ASSIGNED TO AND SERVING WITH AN ARMY UNIT. This article describes Navy policies regarding those special uniform situations for Navy personnel assigned to and serving with an Army unit.

(1) Navy personnel assigned to and embedded in an Army unit that meets the criteria of special uniform situations are authorized to wear the Army’s camouflage uniform. Sailors wearing Army’s camouflage uniform will do so in accordance with U.S. Army Uniform Regulations. The following additional regulations apply:

   a. Headgear. Sailors shall only wear the patrol cap or sun (Boonie) hat as authorized headgear when not wearing the Kevlar helmet. Sewn-on or pin-on rank insignia are authorized on the patrol cap, sun hat, and Kevlar camouflage cover.

   b. Identification Tapes. Name, rank insignia and service name tapes shall be made with universal camouflage background. The placing of rank insignia will follow Army guidelines. Name tape is authorized on the patrol cap.

   c. Identification Badges. Skill badges/skill tabs, and identification badges are not authorized.

   d. Unit Patches. Army Unit patches and the First Navy Jack (Don’t Tread On Me) patch are authorized for wear at the discretion of the local U.S. Army Commander.

   e. Insignia. The wear of subdued pin on a breast insignia (primary warfare only) is authorized in garrison (i.e., CONUS) at the discretion of the local U.S. Army Commander. The wearing of subdued breast insignia while deployed is permitted on forward operating bases or in areas that do not require the wear of personnel protective equipment at the discretion of the local U.S. Army Commander. Insignias will be attached to the uniform in accordance with U.S. Army Uniform Regulations.

   f. U.S. flag. U.S. flag insignia shall be worn in accordance with U.S. Army Uniform Regulations.

   g. Footwear. As authorized by local U.S. army commander.

   h. Handbags. As authorized per local U.S. army commander.
i. Optional Outerwear. Green or Black Fleece Liner of the gortex cold weather coat is authorized.

(2) The Army’s camouflage uniform will be loose fitting and comfortable; alterations to make them fit tightly are not authorized. The only alterations authorized are those listed in AR 700-84. Items should be fitted loosely enough to allow for some shrinkage without rendering the garment unusable.

(3) The wear of organizational clothing for inclement weather conditions or other applicable purposes is permitted as directed by the local U.S. Army Commander.

(4) Sailors may request reimbursement for all costs directly associated to required purchase of uniform items not previously issued by submitting form SF 1164 via their chain of command.”

Note: Updating the policy to allow applicability to all Army Combat uniform and to establish Army Uniform regulation as the prescribing guideline for wear.