U.S. Navy Uniform Regulations
Summary of Changes (16 April 2020)

OCCASIONS FOR WEAR

NWU wear is authorized for commuting and all normal task and associated stops (e.g. stops at child care, gas stations, off-base shopping, banking, DMV and dining) before, during and after the workday. The NWU is not a liberty uniform. Wear while conducting official business, when business attire is appropriate and participating in social events is not permitted. Consumption of alcohol in the NWU off-base is not permitted. Consumption of alcohol in the NWU on base is authorized as promulgated by regional commanders. The area or regional commander may further restrict uniform policies within their geographical limits regarding wear of the NWU.

Within the National Capital Region (NCR), the NWU Type III is authorized for wear at all locations with the exception of the National Mall area bounded by Capitol Hill and surrounding Senate and House Staff offices, the White House and Executive Office building, Department of State and all monuments and memorials unless specifically authorized for a Joint Task Force National Capital Region (JTF-NCR) mission. The NWU Type III is authorized for wear at the Pentagon as the alternate uniform of the day Saturday through Thursdays only. NWU wear is authorized while commuting to and from work using public commuter transportation (metro bus, metro rail, rideshare, commuter vans, taxis and ferries) and slug lines outside the Pentagon. Wear is also authorized in office environments at headquarters staffs within the NCR less identified restricted areas. Recruiters are authorized to wear the NWU Type III in the continental United States (CONUS), Hawaii and Guam (e.g., malls, schools, normal recruiting areas).

Within the National Capital Region (NCR), the NWU Type III is authorized for wear at all locations with the exception of the National Mall area bounded by Capitol Hill and surrounding Senate and House Staff offices, the White House and Executive Office building, Department of State and all monuments and memorials unless specifically authorized for a Joint Task Force National Capital Region (JTF-NCR) mission. The NWU Type III is authorized for wear at the Pentagon as the alternate uniform of the day Saturday through Thursdays only. NWU wear is authorized while commuting to and from work using public commuter transportation (metro bus, metro rail, rideshare, commuter vans, taxis and ferries) and slug lines outside the Pentagon. Wear is also authorized in office environments at headquarters staffs within the NCR less identified restricted areas. Recruiters are authorized to wear the NWU Type III in the continental United States (CONUS), Hawaii and Guam (e.g., malls, schools, normal recruiting areas).

during and after the workday. The NWU is not a liberty uniform. Wear while conducting official business, when business attire is appropriate and participating in social events is not permitted. Consumption of alcohol in the NWU off-base is not permitted. Consumption of alcohol in the NWU on base is authorized as promulgated by regional commanders. The area or regional commander may further restrict uniform policies within their geographical limits regarding wear of the NWU.

Within the National Capital Region (NCR), the NWU Type III is authorized for wear at all locations with the exception of the National Mall area bounded by Capitol Hill and surrounding Senate and House Staff offices, the White House and Executive Office building, Department of State and all monuments and memorials unless specifically authorized for a Joint Task Force National Capital Region (JTF-NCR) mission. The NWU Type III is authorized for wear at the Pentagon as the alternate uniform of the day Saturday through Thursdays only. NWU wear is authorized while commuting to and from work using public commuter transportation (metro bus, metro rail, rideshare, commuter vans, taxis and ferries) and slug lines outside the Pentagon. Wear is also authorized in office environments at headquarters staffs within the NCR less identified restricted areas. Recruiters are authorized to wear the NWU Type III in the continental United States (CONUS), Hawaii and Guam (e.g., malls, schools, normal recruiting areas).

Cold Weather Parka

a. Description. The Cold Weather Parka (CWP) is black, single breasted, made of waterproof and wind resistant material (figure 3501.1b-1). Its features include a hidden center-front zipper fastener, a hidden hood housed in the shell of the collar, a center-chest rank tab and constructed to facilitate wearing the zip-in zip-out NWU black fleece liner.

b. Correct Wear. Close zipper at least 3/4 of the way. The collar should lay flat unless inclement weather conditions warrant it being up and fastened around the neck. The Parka may be worn with or without the zip-in inner liner. The Parka hideaway hood will be stowed and zipped closed unless being donned. During the winter or inclement weather periods, the parka hood is authorized for wear in addition to the head gear. Rank insignia is required for wear by E4 through O10 centered on the center chest rank tab. Rank insignia may be metal or matching fabric sold through Navy Exchange Uniform Centers. Nametags are not authorized for wear. When the rank insignia is removed from the parka, personnel may wear the coat with civilian clothing. For insignia, officers see article 4103, CPOs see article 4213 and E6 and below see article 4227.

c. Ownership Markings (Optional for Officers/CPOs). Surname, first initial and middle initial (if applicable), on label provided inside the parka.

3501.8. Cap, Ball

a. Description. Made of standard navy blue or coyote brown, wool, synthetic, or blended fabric. The cap shall be a conventional baseball cap style with NAVY embroidered or sewn in approximately 1-1/4 inch gold block letters centered on the front and may have adjustable hat band and mesh back section. NAVY logo may be substituted with the command name, designation, and/or command logos in good taste. If the individual's name is affixed, it is centered on the back of the cap in sewn or embroidered letters. The lettering may be in traditional command colors. The cap may be worn with civilian attire on or off base, without insignia. Authorized position held or rank titles (i.e., CO, XO, CMC, Plankowner, CHENG, OPS, DECK LCPO, etc.) or rank/rate with surname that are professional and in good taste may be centered on the back of the cap in sewn or embroidered letters and the lettering may be in traditional command colors. (No nicknames.) Ball caps with titles are not authorized for wear with civilian attire. Visor ornamentation, standard gold color, is authorized for officers.

b. Rank Insignia. Officers may wear miniature size cap insignia and chief petty officers may wear the garrison cap insignia. E4-E6 personnel may wear insignia consisting of a silver eagle and chevron(s). Petty officers entitled to wear gold rating badges and service stripes on their Service Dress Blue uniform may wear gold chevrons vice silver on their cap device.

c. Correct Wear. Wear squarely on the head, with bottom edge parallel to and 1-1/2 inch above the eyebrows. Center insignia 1 1/4 inches from the visor.

d. Occasion for Wear. The Navy blue and Command Ball Caps are authorized for optional wear with the NWU Types II and III, Navy Coveralls (Article 3501.18), Flight Suits, and the Physical Training Uniform (PTU) (Shirt/Shorts/Fitness Suit/Sweat Shirt/Sweat Pants). The coyote brown Command Ball Cap is authorized for optional wear with the NWU Types II and III, Navy Coveralls, and Flight Suits. For the NWU Types II and III, the eight-point cover will remain the standard head gear worn during uniform inspections, special events, and as determined by the Regional Commander or unit commanding officer.

e. Ownership Markings. Last name, first initial and middle initial (if applicable) on sweatband.

Article 3501.83

Description

UNISEX sweater worn by male and female Sailors. Black V-neck style pullover sweater, in both light (acrylic) and heavy (wool) weaves, with fabric epaulets, shoulder and elbow patches. A Velcro backed, black leather nametag (2"x4") is required. (Refer to Article 5201.4b.) Identification badges are not authorized to be worn on the sweater.

Correct Wear

The sweater is authorized for daily wear to and from work, in public places, onboard ship, on base and station, and for attending working level meetings/briefings. Officers wear soft shoulder boards on the epaulets. CPOs may wear soft shoulder boards on the epaulets optionally until 1 October 2000, at which time they become mandatory. E6 and below personnel wear no insignia on the sweater. Shirt collar is worn inside the sweater when a tie is worn and outside the sweater when no tie is worn. For shipboard restrictions, refer to article 1101.5e.

Ownership Markings

Complete the manufacturer's tag with indelible ink.

a. Description. UNISEX sweater worn by male and female Sailors. Black or Navy blue in color. Authorized fabrics include acrylic (figure 3501.83-1) and wool (figure 3501.83-2). The V-neck sweater is configured with epaulets, shoulder and elbow patches, and a Velcro backed, black leather nametag (2" x 4") is required (article 5201.4b). Identification badges are not authorized to be worn on the sweater.

b. Occasion for Wear

(1) General Wear. The sweater is authorized for daily wear to and from work, in public places, onboard ship (Wool only), on base and station, and for attending working level meetings/briefings. For acrylic sweater shipboard restrictions, refer to article 1101.5e.

(2) Wear in Lieu of Service Dress Blue (SDB) Coat. The black V-Neck Sweater is authorized for wear in lieu of the SDB coat for daily wear to and from work, in public places and for attending working level meetings/briefings. The V-neck sweater is not authorized to substitute wear of the SDB coat for ceremonies, high-level meetings/briefings, or when conducting business on Capitol Hill.

c. Correct Wear. Wear squarely on the shoulders. Officers and CPOs wear soft shoulder boards on the epaulets. E1-E6 personnel wear no insignia on the sweater. Shirt collar is worn inside the sweater when a tie/neck tab is worn and outside the sweater when no tie/neck tab is worn. When worn over the khaki overblouse, the overblouse will not extend below the bottom of the sweater. May be worn with appropriate outer garment for the uniform worn.

d. Ownership Markings (Optional for Officers/CPOs). Complete the manufacturer's tag with indelible ink.

Description and Wear of Uniform Components Overblouse, Khaki, Service (Female)
Article 3602.1

Description

Khaki in color and made of authorized fabric (75/25% poly/wool blend) with short sleeves and an open collar forming a V neck. The overblouse is a basic uniform component for female officer and enlisted Sailors.

Correct Wear

(1) The overblouse will be worn outside the slacks or skirt and will hang comfortably over the hips and chest. The length will be long enough to fall approximately one inch above the bottom of the side pocket opening. All buttons will be fastened.

(2) Undershirts, 3501.101, collar insignia 4227, warfare insignia 5201.2, identification badges 5101, name tags 5201.4, and military decorations 5305-5312 will be worn as prescribed in their respective articles. The placement of the lower horizontal area of the lowest row of ribbons will be approximately 6¼ inches down from the shoulder seam and centered over the front seam on the wearer's left. Nametags will be placed in the same manner on the wearer's right side of the overblouse. Adjust ribbons and name tag as necessary to obtain a proper appearance.

(3) When worn with the black relax fit (knit collar) jacket or V-neck sweater, the overblouse will not extend below the bottom of the jacket or sweater. If the length of the overblouse protrudes beneath the jacket or sweater, gently roll/tuck/fold the bottom of the overblouse up and under so that it will not be visible.

(4) White undershirts are optional for females at non-industrial environment shore commands.

7203. WEARING UNIFORM ARTICLES WITH CIVILIAN CLOTHES. Military personnel may wear military uniform articles with civilian clothing when the item cannot be identified as a Navy uniform component. Navy uniform articles worn with civilian clothing will not include military accoutrements that identify affiliation with the Navy, including but not limited to nametags, rank insignia, buttons or other military insignia. This restriction does not preclude the wear of Command Logo/Navy Pride shirts (as described in article 3603.2). For command ball cap restrictions, see article 3501.8. Physical training uniforms may be worn with civilian clothing at the member's discretion, unless otherwise prohibited by proper authority (regional commanders, SOPA, commanding officers). Examples of military articles that may be worn with civilian clothing in accordance with this article include the All-Weather Coat, Cold Weather Parka, Black Fleece Liner, Peacoat, Service and Dress shoes, Boots, V-Neck Sweater, socks, undergarments, etc.
