From the everyday stressors of life to the stressors related to combat, stress can affect even the strongest Marine. The DSTRESS Line was developed by the Corps to provide professional, anonymous counseling for Marines, their families and loved ones when it's needed most. Call today to speak with one of your own.
The purpose of the EFMP is to assess, document and code the special medical and educational needs of eligible family members. By identifying families with special needs and maximizing the provision of quality services needed, quality of life is enhanced while the mission is met. The program assists Headquarters in assigning personnel to an area where their exceptional family member's special needs can be met.

Enrollment in the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) is mandatory for any service member with a qualified family member.

The EFMP office is located aboard Naval Medical Center Portsmouth (NMCP), 620 John Paul Jones Cir, Portsmouth, VA 23708, Building 3, 4th Floor.

Family Advocacy Program

Family Advocacy is a command program designed to assist families experiencing the trauma of abuse. Counselors are trained in the dynamics of abuse in order to assist in protecting victims and support families in need of assistance.

Services include information on spouse/intimate partner and child abuse, victim advocacy, counseling for individuals, couples and children, as well as support groups for men and women. These services are provided, free of charge, for those seeking help. Additionally, classes on stress management, anger management, child and teen parenting, financial management and building self-esteem are offered to educate individuals in dealing with stressful situations.
• FOCUS provides resiliency training to military families. It is not counseling. It offers practical steps for building a stronger, more resilient family.

• It is a confidential resource via the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (BUMED), and UCLA.

• FOCUS teaches practical skills to meet the challenges of deployment and reintegration, to communicate and solve problems effectively, and to successfully set goals together and create a shared family story.

• FOCUS at also provides units and groups with “Skill Building Groups” on a variety of topics from problem solving to communication.

• They are located on Fort Story at 720 New Guinea Rd, Virginia Beach, VA 23456.

• They can be reached at 757-373-9620.
