

#558: Feeling Lucky?

This sort of make-do, save-a-minute ingenuity often results from not having a ladder. He wouldn't even have had to use the Not-a-Step, had he felt the urge to check the block for some sort of safety violation.

He just had to move the vending machine out of the way, and he was even prepared for that.

Guess he figured he could get away with it because nobody could recognize him.
