From: Commander, Navy Reserve Forces Command

Subj: STAFF DISCIPLINARY REVIEW BOARD

Encl: (1) Disciplinary Review Board Recommendation Sheet
      (2) Disciplinary Review Board Chairman’s Script

1. Purpose. To modify the functions and authority of Commander, Navy Reserve Forces Command (COMNAVRESFORCOM) staff Disciplinary Review Board (DRB) for E-6 and below Sailors.

2. Cancellation. COMNAVRESFORCOMINST 1626.1B.

3. Discussion. The Commander is directly responsible for administration of non-judicial punishment (NJP) and delegates this authority to the Chief of Staff (CoS) for E-6 and below Sailors. Any violation of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) reported on E-6 and below Sailors assigned to COMNAVRESFORCOM may be investigated by the DRB. The DRB provides a means of maintaining good order and discipline, correcting minor disciplinary infractions, and promoting positive behavior changes to members of this command by involving them in the discipline process. The DRB serves as a fact finding and advisory body by investigating alleged violations, correcting behavior within its purview, and making recommendations, using enclosure (1) of this instruction.

4. Membership. The DRB will be composed of chief petty officers (CPO) assigned by the Command Master Chief (CMDCM). The DRB will have a representative from at least four disassociated divisions or departments, along with a Legal Representative, Master-at-Arms (MAA), and a Command Managed Equal Opportunity (CMEO) Representative. The CMDCM will preside over all DRBs and use enclosure (2) during proceedings. In the absence of the CMDCM, a staff master chief will preside over the DRB.

5. Authority. The DRB is charged with recommending the manner of disposition and providing a summary of justification.

6. Responsibilities. The CMDCM will convene the DRB as required to expeditiously process completed report chits.
a. The DRB will review each case and take the following action:

   (1) Determine the facts surrounding the allegation.

   (2) Interview the division leading CPO, division leading petty officer of the accused, witnesses and other involved parties as necessary, to include Deputy Chief of Staffs.

   (3) Review the service record of the accused.

   (4) Forward the DRB's recommendation to legal for review and then to the CoS for disposition of the case.

b. The CoS may opt to bypass the DRB when deemed appropriate.

7. Rights of the Accused. The legal office will ensure, in writing, that the accused is afforded all rights under Article 31 of the UCMJ, using the NAVPERS 1626/7 form. DRB findings and recommendations are to be held in strict confidence to protect the rights of the accused under the UCMJ.

8. Records Management. Records created as a result of this instruction, regardless of media and format, shall be managed per Secretary of the Navy (SECNAV) Manual M-5210.1 of January 2012.

9. Review and Effective Date. Per OPNAVINST 5215.17A, COMNAVFORCOMMOC N00C will review this instruction annually on the anniversary of its effective date to ensure applicability, currency, and consistency with Federal, Department of Defense, SECNAV, Navy policy and statutory authority using OPNAV 5215/40 Review of Instruction. This instruction will automatically expire 10 years after effective date unless reissued or cancelled prior to the 10 year anniversary date, or an extension has been granted.
