Your local School Liaison Officer can inform you of local school options and help guide your choices as you plan for your child's educational needs as well as provide additional information and support.

What is a School Liaison Officer?

The School Liaison Officer is the primary point of contact between the military installation, the local schools and school districts, transitioning families and the community at large. The Navy School Liaison Officer (SLO) program helps installation and regional commanders work with state departments and local school districts to foster awareness of the stressors on military families brought about by frequent transitions and extended deployments. These education professionals are located on all major Navy installations and serve as linkages between Navy families and schools.

The School Liaison Officer specializes in serving military students grade K-12 and families, and offers a wide spectrum of services including:

- Assisting families with inbound/ outbound school transfers
- Providing information on local schools and boundaries
- Providing information for parents to make informed school choice
- Providing information on graduation requirements
- Providing military and community agency referrals
- Helping families understand and navigate the special education process
- Providing information on home schooling regulations
- Assisting with post secondary preparations

The NAVSTA Everett School Liaison Officer can be contacted at: Smokey Point Naval Support Complex, 13912 45th Ave NE, Marysville, WA 98271. Phone: 425-304-3688; Fax: 425-304-3689 Or online by clicking here.

Private Schools

There are many religious-based and non religion-based private schools in the Snohomish County area.

Education - Local Schools

Choosing the right school for their children is a priority for military families. This article describes excellent resources for your use in planning for your child's educational needs. Parents can find current information about public, charter and private schools by using the tools below:

1. How do I choose a good school?

Choosing a School for Your Child is a U.S. Department of Education publication that will help families identify what is important in selecting a school.

The School Visit: What to Look For, What to Ask Whether you are choosing a school for the first time, or because you are in transition, this site will provide you with information about what to do and what to ask.

2. What schools are in my area (or in the area where I may move), and how good are they?

Several high quality commercial tools are available to assist in making decisions about which school to choose for your child. Listed below are these website tools along with information on how you access the information and what type of information each site provides.

Both Great Schools and School Matters provide a wealth of information for parents:

- School contact information
- Distance from zip code (provide the installation zip code, or the zip code of the area where you will be living)
- Public, private or charter school designation
- Student/teacher ratios
- Free and reduced school lunch program (an estimate of economic disadvantage)
- Great Schools provides a rating of schools and a parent comment section
- Percentage of students meeting or exceeding the state standards in math, reading and language arts
- Teachers - average number of years teaching experience, % of first year teachers on the staff
- Students: Average percentage of students absent from school for more than 15 days
- Ethnic breakdown and percent of students with English as a second language
- School Matters provides college prep scores (PSAT, SAT, ACT test scores)-for high schools only
- Great Schools also provides parents the ability to rate the schools and make comments on the schools.

For both sites, the user must enter the State and zip code to find schools in the area.

SchoolQuest was developed by the Military Child Education Coalition to help military families select schools. SchoolQuest also offers an Online Library that provides resources for families in transition. At this time, the SchoolQuest data base covers 99 military installations. The Military Child Education Coalition also provides a data base of information on each State's educational system.

The School Report Tool is available from Military OneSource that list names and locations of public, public charter, private, virtual and home schooling choices around major installations. Charter Schools are nonsectarian public schools of choice that operate with freedom from many of the regulations that apply to traditional public schools. Use this site to find one in your area.

3. How can I help plan for a successful transition in this new school and for my child's school career?

Parents often want to know about the availability of extra curricular activities and sports, or the availability of advanced classes. For these questions, it is best to contact the schools directly. It is important to ask the right questions. The following resources can help with these questions and others.

The Toolkit for Parents was developed by the Department of Defense, especially for Military Families. This 85 page booklet walks parents through preparing for the move and the first two weeks of school...what to ask, what to take, etc.

The Military Impacted Association has checklists available for military kids who are leaving or entering a new school.

The Military Child Education Coalition has a checklist for transferring students that will be helpful. Additionally, through SchoolQuest, MCEC provides parents with the ability to develop a profile for each of their children, which then will provide them with a report on issues related to transferring to a new school district.

4. Question? What happens if I need help during the school year?

During the school year, there are always questions that parents have, such as "What is the best way to help with homework?" or "What if my child needs to see a counselor because my spouse is deployed?" Military OneSource helps with these questions and has 24/7 access. You can call them at 1-800-342-9647 or connect to them at the website Military OneSource.

In a PPV, the Navy and a private sector company join forces and resources to form a partnership, making available private funding, to build, manage and operate our housing communities. Currently 288 PPV units are located near the Navy Support Complex north of Marysville at Carroll's Creek Landing. These townhouses consist of 85 two-bedroom units, 175 three-bedroom units and 28 four-bedroom units. Rents are tied to a member's Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH). Rent includes water, sewer and trash. Constitution Park, located in the city of Lake Stevens, has over 1/2 of the 141 single unit homes completed. As information regarding Constitution Park becomes available, it will be posted here.

To view all PPV floor plans, please click here.

Non-Government Housing

Rental Options

The Housing Referral Office (HRO) has a Rental Partnership Program and referral services. HRO is your contact for any problems you may encounter such as discrimination complaints, tenant/landlord disputes, or any questions or problems about off-base housing. All renters should carry renters insurance against fire, theft and other damages. The property owner's insurance will cover the property but not the renter's personal property. Transfer insurance coverage after you arrive. The Rental Partnership Program (RPP) waives security deposits and application fees for service members participating in the program. Military members will pay rent through an allotment. All military must complete an application and checklist and provide a copy of orders and page 2 prior to participating in the RPP. There are currently over 40 apartment complexes participating in this program.

Referral Services

The HRO will provide you a list of rentals with corresponding locator maps and give you information regarding the communities in which the rentals are located. The HRO maintains an extensive computerized database of rental listings provided by property management companies, individual landlords, brokers, and agents. The listing consists of apartments, houses, duplexes, condominiums, townhouses and studios. And now, the HRO has partnered with the Automated Housing Referral Network (AHRN) to provide options in the Puget Sound area via the AHRN website.

Purchase Options

Right now, housing is a "buyers market". There are plenty of properties available. Mortgages are relatively cheap but harder to qualify for. Prices are stabilizing and are not expected to go much lower. The median home price in the County has just dipped below $300,000 in March of 2009, according to City-Data.

Household Goods - Overview

Arranging Household Goods Shipments

As soon as you are alerted to your upcoming PCS move, you can start getting your house and family ready. Clean up and get rid of junk. Hold a yard sale or take serviceable items you no longer need to a thrift shop or donate to charity. Get important family records together in one place. You can even estimate the weight of your household goods before you visit your transportation office to set up the move. If you are going overseas, you should begin to plan what items you will take in your unaccompanied baggage, in your household goods shipment, and what might need to go into permanent storage. Remember for overseas assignments, electricity is different and houses are generally much smaller and cannot handle large furniture.

Set up an appointment with your transportation office as soon as you have a copy of your PCS orders. The earlier you call or visit your transportation office, the greater your chances of moving on the date you desire. The transportation office may instruct you to use the government's new automated moving system and process, DP3. The counselors will explain all your PCS move entitlements in detail. Your first decision is whether to have the government move you or whether to move yourself. There are pros and cons to each type of move. Your counselor will answer all of your questions. If you choose a government move, they will book your shipment and put you in contact with your mover (Transportation Service Provider - TSP). The TSP will contact you for a pre-move survey and let you know the exact dates the movers will come. If you choose to move yourself, the counselor can assist with recommendations and tips on how to do a personal move.

Automobile

The government may ship one Privately Owned Vehicle (POV) at their expense to your new overseas location. This is handled through your transportation office. Remember to discuss your POV needs at your initial counseling session. The shipping contractor has established a website where you can track the location of your POV through the shipping process.

Shipping Pets

Planning for shipment of your pet includes researching airline requirements, and quarantine restriction laws in your new location. You will need to ask the airlines the requirements for size, weight, number of animals, kennel construction, documentation and season of the year limitations. Occasionally, small pets can be shipped on military flights but availability and regulations are always changing as well as fees. Check the DoD Household Goods Portal website for details on shipping pets.

Many international locations have strict importation laws including extended quarantines and restrictions on breeds or types of animals that can be brought into the country. Carefully research these rules as they could impact your moving schedule. Not only do overseas locations have strict rules but many locations have restrictions on dangerous dogs as well. Review your destination installation's Shipping Pets article for details.

Arrival and Delivery of Household Goods Shipments

Follow the instructions you are given at counseling carefully. Depending on how your shipment moves, it is your responsibility to contact the transportation office or mover (TSP) as soon as you arrive at your new duty station. Let them know how you can be contacted, phone, mobile phone and e-mail. If you already have new quarters, they will help arrange delivery of your personal property shipments. Otherwise they will arrange for temporary storage until you have permanent housing.

Make certain that you, or someone who can act in your name, is available at your new home on delivery day. If the TSP arrives and cannot deliver the shipment, you may be charged for the attempted delivery and any additional storage that may result.

Customer Satisfaction Survey

Once your personal property is delivered, you'll be asked to rate your satisfaction with the customer service you received from the TSP. Make sure you take the time to do this. Your feedback will make the process better for everyone. The SDDC website provides detailed information about completing the Customer Satisfaction Survey.

Claims

DoD customers are eligible for Full Replacement Value (FRV) protection on most DoD sponsored shipments. With this protection, the TSP will either repair or pay to repair damaged items and pay the full replacement cost for items that are lost or destroyed.

Providing prompt notice of loss or damage is an essential part of the process. Use the front of DD Form 1840/1840R to notify the mover of any loss or damage you find at the time of delivery. If further loss or damage is discovered after the transportation provider departs, use the reverse side of the form, DD Form 1840R. You must file DD Form 1840/1840R with the TSP within 75 days of delivery. The TSP has the right to inspect the damaged item once they receive the notice forms.

If you have any loss or damage to your personal property you will need to file a claim. Completing and submitting the DD Form 1840/1840R does not constitute filing a claim. You must file the claim directly with the TSP within nine months of delivery to receive FRV protection. Once the claim is filed directly with the TSP, the TSP is responsible for obtaining repair and replacement estimates and settling the claim by paying repair or replacement costs.

As in the past, the Military Claims Office (MCO) is available to help you understand the claims process and your rights and responsibilities. You may still transfer your claim to the MCO if you wish. However, if you transfer your claim the MCO will only be responsible for the lower depreciated cost of items on the claim.

Household Goods - Shipping Pets

Boarding

Naval Station Everett does not have veterinary service or boarding facilities. However, there are several veterinary facilities and kennels in the surrounding areas. Service members traveling with pets should notify their Sponsor prior to departing for information and locations of services. You can also check the VCA Animal Hospital website for additional assistance.

Licensing and County Laws

The City of Everett and unincorporated sections of Snohomish County address for Everett Animal Control is 2930 36th St, Everett. They can be reached by calling 425-259-8844.

Leash laws are enforced in the county. There is no pet quarantine - Pets must have certification of current rabies shots and current health certificate.

Transportation

Traveling with pets requires thorough planning. Animals are territorial by nature and will be stressed out during relocation. During relocation, keep your pet on a leash or in a portable kennel until they are familiar with their new home. To arrange for pet transportation regarding PCS moves, contact PSD Transportation office at 425-304-4211. For commercial pet transportation arrangements, you may also call your local SATO office. The Naval Station Everett commercial travel office (SATO) can be reached at 425-304-4001.

Planning for shipment of your pet includes researching airline requirements and quarantine restriction laws in your new location. You will need to ask the airlines the requirements for size, weight, number of animals, kennel construction, documentation and season of the year limitations. Occasionally, small pets can be shipped on military flights but availability and regulations are always changing as well as fees. Check Military Homefront's Plan My Move program for details on shipping pets.

Many international locations have strict importation laws including extended quarantines and restrictions on breeds or types of animals that can be brought into the country. Carefully research these rules as they could impact your moving schedule. Not only do overseas locations have strict rules but many locations have restrictions on dangerous dogs as well. Review your destination installation's Shipping Pets article for details.

Special Needs

As many as 15 percent of military families have members with special needs. These include spouses, children, or dependent parents who require special medical or educational services. These family members have a diagnosed physical, intellectual or emotional condition. The Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) serves these families in several ways.

These four articles will provide families with special needs helpful information and points of contact:

- Enrollment/EFMP – This article discusses the Exceptional Family Member Program enrollment, which is mandatory for all military personnel who have a member of their family with a medical or educational disability. The article discusses the purpose of enrollment, the process and provides Service-specific differences.
- Family Support/EFMP – This article discusses the family support function of the EFMP, which may include information and referral support (to military and community resources), financial management assistance, relocation assistance, and for some families, case management. The article provides Service-specific differences and identifies the point of contact at each installation.
- Health Care/Special Needs - The military health care system supports families with special needs in a number of ways. This article describes the special services and provides the point of contact at the Military Treatment Facility.
- Special Education/EIS – Describes two programs that provide educational intervention for children with disabilities who are from birth to three (early intervention services) or are school aged (3-21) (special education).

Special Needs - EFMP Enrollment

Exceptional Family Member Program - Enrollment

The Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) includes a variety of personnel, medical, and family support functions. Enrollment is a major component of the program and is mandatory for all military personnel who have a member of their family with a medical or educational disability.

By submitting a completed DD 2792, EFM Medical Summary and/or the DD 2792-1, EFMP Educational Summary, the military member identifies that a family member has a special need. Information about the family member's condition including diagnosis, type of provider(s), frequency of care, medication, and special accommodations is documented on the forms. The information is used during the time that a service member is being considered for a new assignment to insure that the service member's family member can obtain necessary care at the new location.

Although each of the Military Services handles the enrollment somewhat differently, there are some commonalities:

1. Each Service uses the Department of Defense forms (DD 2792 and DD 2792-1)
2. Each Service submits the completed forms to the receiving location for review.
3. The receiving location indicates whether care is available.
4. The DD 2792 medical form is reviewed by medical personnel,
5. The DD 2792-1 is reviewed by educational personnel,
6. All of the information is confidential and private, and on a need to know basis.

Military personnel, depending upon the Service, can pick up the necessary forms as follows:

Army – At the military treatment facility – ask for the EFMP office.

Marine Corps – At Marine Corps Community Service. Ask for the EFMP manager.

Navy – At the military treatment facility. Ask for the EFMP Coordinators' Office.

Air Force – At the military treatment facility. Ask for the Special Needs Information and Assignment Coordination (SNIAC) officer.

These individuals can also explain the process for getting the forms completed, and for returning them.

Special Needs - EFMP Family Support

Exceptional Family Member Program - Family Support

The Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) includes a variety of personnel, medical, and family support functions. The EFMP family support services may include, but are not limited to:

To reach a family support program in the:

Moving to a New TRICARE Region

If you anticipate a move to another TRICARE region, work with your local TRICARE Service Center (TSC) or case manager before your move to ensure the transition is as smooth as possible. On arrival at the new duty location, your sponsor should contact the Beneficiary Counseling and Assistance Coordinator (BCAC) or TSC to ensure the transition plans are in place and to obtain authorizations for TRICARE Extended Care Health Option (ECHO) services, if applicable.

Individuals who have received a notice from a collection agency or a negative credit report because of a medical or dental bill should be referred to the nearest DCAO.

Children from Birth to Three Years of Age

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) requires all States and territories to provide early intervention services to children from birth to age three who are developmentally delayed, or who are at high risk of being developmentally delayed. Early intervention services may be provided by local school districts or health departments. There is no common name across States for the programs, but you may hear them referred to as Part C programs (because Part C is the section of the IDEA that pertains to early intervention).

The National Early Childhood Technical Assistance Center provides a list of State Part C directors and funded programs at their web site. Military OneSource can identify local early intervention programs for you.

- Parents of children who receive early intervention services should hand-carry a copy of the Individual Family Service Plan (IFSP) and most current evaluation reports to the new location.

Children from 3 through 21 Years of Age

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) requires all States and Territories to provide special education services to children who are from 3 through 21 year of age. Each local school district has a special education director, and each school should have a case study committee or school based committee (terms differ) that attends to special education students' needs.

Parents of children receiving special education and related services should hand-carry all pertinent school and medical documents to include their children's Individualized Education Program (IEP) and current testing and evaluation reports to the new school.

The IDEA requires that if a child transfers to a district in the same state, the receiving school must provide comparable services to those in the child's IEP from the sending district's until the new school develops and implements a new IEP. If a child transfers to another State, the receiving district must provide comparable services to those in the child's IEP from the sending district until the receiving district completes an evaluation and creates a new IEP.

Health Care - Overview

Moving With TRICARE

Your TRICARE coverage is completely portable—meaning it moves with you. You're covered worldwide—both in transit to your new duty location and once you arrive—but depending on where you go you may use a different TRICARE health plan option. Additionally, you may have different steps depending on which health plan option you are using now.

When Enrolled in a TRICARE Prime Option

The TRICARE Prime options include TRICARE Prime and TRICARE Prime Remote in the United States, and TRICARE Prime Overseas and TRICARE Global Remote Overseas in regions outside of the United States. Follow these simple steps to ensure you have no break in coverage when you move.

1. Do not disenroll from your TRICARE Prime option before you move.
2. Once you arrive at your new location, update your personal information in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System \(DEERS\) immediately.
3. Select a new primary care manager (PCM), when moving within the same region or submit a new Prime enrollment form within 30 days if you're moving to a new region.

Where you are moving will determine which Prime option you will enroll in.

Prime Options in the United States

TRICARE Prime

TRICARE Prime is offered in Prime service areas—geographic areas typically located around a military treatment facility—throughout the country.

- North Region Health Net Federal Services, Inc., 1-877-TRICARE (1-877-874 2273)
- South Region Humana Military Healthcare Services, Inc. 1-800444-5445
- West Region TriWest Healthcare Alliance 1-888-TRIWEST (1-888-874-9378)

If you move to a new Prime service area, transfer your enrollment by submitting a TRICARE Prime Enrollment and PCM Change Form to your regional contractor. Be sure to include all family members who wish to use Prime on the form.

TRICARE Prime Remote

In non-Prime service areas, TRICARE offers TRICARE Prime Remote. To enroll, submit a TRICARE Prime Enrollment and PCM Change Form to your regional contractor. Any TRICARE-eligible family members living with you in a TRICARE Prime Remote area can enroll in TRICARE Prime Remote for Active Duty Family Members. Be sure to include them on the enrollment form.

Before you move to another overseas area or to an area within the United States, contact the nearest TRICARE Service Center. Then, when you arrive in your new area, transfer your enrollment.

When Using TRICARE Standard and Extra

TRICARE Standard and Extra are available to family members only. Active duty service members are required to enroll in one of the Prime options described above.

TRICARE Standard and Extra are available throughout the United States and enrollment is not required. Any active duty family member who is registered in DEERS may use these programs by seeing any network or non-network providers that are authorized by TRICARE. In areas outside of the United States, active duty family members who don't want to use a Prime option may use TRICARE Standard Overseas by seeing qualified host nation provider.

If you're already using TRICARE Standard and Extra, moving is easy.

1. Once you arrive at your new location, update your personal information in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) immediately.
2. Then, find TRICARE-authorized providers in your new area.

Here are a few things to remember about using TRICARE Standard and Extra in a new region

- In the U.S.: Visit your new regional contractor's Web site for a list of providers. Remember, if you see network providers, you'll be using the Extra option and pay lower copayments.
- Outside of the U.S.: Contact your TRICARE Service Center for help locating a qualified host nation provider. The TRICARE Extra option is not available in overseas areas.
- If you move to a new region, you'll have a new claims address for submitting your TRICARE claims.
- Learn your new region's prior authorization requirements because these requirements can differ by region.

When Using TRICARE For Life

TRICARE For Life—TRICARE's coverage for those who are eligible for Medicare—requires no enrollment and you'll have a smooth transition when you move. TRICARE For Life contact information: WPS TRICARE For Life, P.O. Box 7889, Madison, WI 53707-7889; 1-866-773-0404; TDD 1-866-773-0405

- Once you arrive at your new location, update your personal information in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) immediately.
- Find Medicare providers in your new area.

If you move overseas, your TRICARE For Life coverage may change depending on where you move. In U.S. Territories such as Guam, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, TRICARE For Life coverage works the same as the stateside program. But, in all other overseas locations, TRICARE For Life Overseas works differently because Medicare does not provider coverage in most overseas locations. Therefore, TRICARE is the primary payer. You can get care from any host nation provider and you will be responsible for TRICARE deductibles and cost shares.

Contact the TRICARE Area Office for the overseas area where you are moving or the nearest American Embassy Health Unit for assistance finding a host nation provider.

Getting Care Along the Way

- Routine Medical and Dental Care—Get it before you go.

Before you move, make sure you've received any routine medical or dental care you think you might need during the time you'll be traveling. Or, delay the care until you get to your new duty location.

- Emergency Care in the United States—Call 911 or go to the nearest emergency room.

TRICARE defines emergency care as medical services provided for a sudden or unexpected medical or psychiatric condition, or the sudden worsening of a chronic (ongoing) condition that is threatening to life, limb, or sight and needs immediate medical treatment, or which has painful symptoms that need immediate relief to stop suffering. If you're traveling near a military treatment facility (MTF), you should go to the MTF or military dental treatment facility for emergency services. If you are hospitalized in a civilian facility for more than 24 hours, contact your regional contractor

- Urgent care in the United States—Coordinate with your PCM and/or regional contractor

TRICARE defines urgent care as medical care for a condition that will not result in disability or death if not treated immediately but should be treated within 24 hours to avoid further complications. If you are in a Prime program, you must coordinate urgent care with your primary care manager and/or regional contractor before receiving care. If you are in TRICARE Standard and Extra or TRICARE For Life, you can receive care as you normally would. You should, however, contact your contractor as soon as possible to coordinate any prior authorizations that are needed.

- Emergency or Urgent care Overseas—Contact closest TRICARE Area Office or TRICARE Global Remote Call Center.

You don't need prior authorization for emergency or urgent care but the TRICARE Area Office or TRICARE Global Remote Call Center will help you find the best care available in the overseas area in which you are traveling.

Filling Prescriptions on the Road

You should have all your prescriptions filled before you leave, but if you need a prescription filled while you're traveling in the United States, you have several options:

- If near an MTF, fill the prescription at the MTF pharmacy.
- Find the closest TRICARE network pharmacy.
- If a network pharmacy is not available, you can visit a non-network pharmacy. In this case, you may have to pay up front for your medications and file a claim with Express Scripts, Inc., for reimbursement. For more details, visit the TRICARE web site
- The mail-order option is not recommended for a prescription you need right away, but if you'll be traveling for a long time, you can arrange for any regular prescriptions to be filled via the mail-order pharmacy.

Your pharmacy coverage is limited overseas:

- TRICARE network pharmacies are only located in the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. You can have prescriptions filled at host-nation pharmacies, if necessary. Host-nation pharmacies are treated the same as non-network pharmacies. If you have prescriptions filled at a host-nation pharmacy, you should expect to pay for the total amount up front and file a claim with Wisconsin Physicians Service for partial reimbursement. To learn more about pharmacy claims, visit the TRICARE web site.
- To use the mail-order pharmacy overseas, the prescription must be from a U.S. licensed provider and you must have an APO or FPO address.

If You Have Questions

Your regional contractors and TRICARE Area Offices are available to answer your questions. These offices are listed above. Find even more information about moving, updating DEERS, the TRICARE regions and much more at the TRICARE web site.

Child and Youth Programs

General Information

The Department of Defense (DoD) and the Military Services take great pride in the variety and quality of services provided to children and youth on installations worldwide. While the services provided depend on the size of the location, the standards and quality of services are consistent and meet established regulations. The network has hundreds of locations worldwide serving over 1.3 million children.

Child Development Centers (CDC)

These facilities generally offer child care for children ages six weeks to 5 years old. Care is typically available weekdays from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. CDCs vary in size; the average CDC cares for about 200 children. All programs must be certified by the DoD and accredited by a national accrediting body such as the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

In-Home Childcare

With in-home childcare, children receive their care in the private home of a certified provider living in government-owned or leased housing or in state-licensed homes in the community. Family child care provides accommodating child care arrangements, including night, weekend, and flexible hourly care for shift work.

In-home childcare programs offer comparable care to a CDC. Providers must be certified by the DoD, and some seek additional accreditation from the National Association of Family Child Care (NAFCC). Regulations limit the number of children that may be cared for at one time: no more than six children under age eight, and no more than two charges under two years old.

School-age care (SAC)

DoD School-Age Care (SAC) programs are offered for children, kindergarten to 12 years of age before and/or after school, during holidays, and summer vacations. Emphasis is placed on SAC programs which meet community needs, reinforce family values, and promote the cognitive, social, emotional, and physical development of children. SAC may be provided in DoD Youth Centers, Child Development Centers or other suitable facilities. To expand school-age care spaces, DoD policy encourages use of youth centers; on-and off-base schools, and other suitable facilities such as community centers. Accreditation of DoD SAC programs is a requirement. Accreditation sets the professional standards for after school programs and helps families identify high-quality programs.

Waiting List

Due to a high demand for care, you may be placed on a wait list. Your position on the wait list depends on many factors that are at the discretion of the installation and may include your spouse's military status, the date you apply, deployment and your employment. If these factors change while you are on the wait list, your position will be changed accordingly, so it is important that you keep your information up-to-date.

Child care is not an entitlement, and fees are income-based. Fees throughout the child development system of care fall into fee ranges set by DoD.

To apply for child care, fill out DD Form 2652, Application for Department of Defense Child Care Fees and DD Form 2606, the Department of Defense Child Development Program Request for Care Record and return them to the Resource and Referral (R&R) office at your installation.

Youth Programs

The Department of Defense has a long history of providing positive youth programs that focus on alternative activities for youth during out-of-school hours. Today, DoD continues to be committed to youth by providing consistent guidance and stable and dynamic programs in more than 350 youth programs worldwide. DoD promotes positive youth development by designing programs to recognize the achievements of youth and by developing partnerships with other youth-serving organizations like the Boys & Girls Clubs of America and 4-H that offer a variety of resources. Programs for teens and pre-teens vary from one base to another, but are governed by a consistent DoD instruction. Programs prepare young people to meet the challenges of adolescence and adulthood through a coordinated, progressive series of activities and experiences that help them become socially, emotionally, physically and cognitively competent. Programs usually include physical fitness and sports, arts and recreation, training in leadership, life skills and career/volunteer opportunities, mentoring, intervention and support services.

- Child Development Center with a capacity of 174 infants and toddlers, ages 6 weeks - 5 yrs. The CDC is conveniently located on the main Base. Care at our center is primarily geared toward those needing full-time child care. Our centers are based on the developmental program model which focuses on play and its importance in a child's learning process. We are committed to supporting the military family by recognizing the uniqueness of each family's lifestyle and cultural heritage. We strive to meet each child's social, emotional and intellectual needs by instilling in each child a feeling of competence and positive self-concept. We value and support our staff through staff development and continuing education so they become even better equipped to support the individual needs of children. Parents are encouraged to participate in center events and activities.
- Child Development Home program with 29 certified providers currently caring for children ages 4 weeks - 12 yrs. CDH caregivers provide the same level of high quality care found in our on-base centers, but are often able to offer a little more flexibility in services. Not only are our homes required to meet Navy child care guidelines, but many of our homes are also licensed by the State of Washington. CDH providers offer developmental programs and receive ongoing training and home visits on a monthly basis. They offer full-time, part-time, drop-in and weekend care.
- School Age Care provided by the Marysville YMCA for summer camp care and before and after school care of youth age 5 (enrolled in kindergarten) through 12 years old at Navy subsidized prices.

As a working parent, having a safe place for your children to go before and after school provides you with peace of mind to do your job. Our School Age Care program is designed to do just that. The highly structured recreational and educational programs provide youth with age appropriate before and after school activities, as well as holiday and summer day camps where kids will be able to meet new friends, learn new skills and participate in a variety of activities.

Employment - Overview

Employment Opportunities

The primary engine running employment factors of the local region is Boeing Aerospace Industries. It is expected that for every Boeing job there are 2.8 additional jobs indirectly supported by it. Snohomish County is one of the fastest growing areas in Washington State. The result is a relative increase in real property values which translates to fewer available living units (apartments, houses for sale or rent, etc.) and a higher cost of living.

Worksource Washington contains the largest data bank of employment in the State. The Everett Worksource Office can be accessed via the internet (click here) or call them at 425-258-6300.

The Everett Fleet and Family Support Center has a Family Employment Readiness Program (click here), Transition Assistance Program and an Employment Resource Room, all designed to assist job seekers with securing employment. The Resource Room has computers with internet access, job postings, an employment resource library, copier, printer and other tools to assist the job seeker. Many classes are offered, including Resume Writing, Interview Skills, Job Search Strategies, How to Work a Job Fair, and more. FFSC staff are available to work individually with you, whatever your job search situation. Contact the Everett Fleet and Family Support Center for more information 425-304-3367.

Employment Documentation

Before each interview, select items that best pertain to this specific job target. Examples of appropriate items for your Interview Marketing Kit are as follows:

- Job-related samples of your work, if applicable (from your work, education, or training experience)
- Required certificates, licenses, transcripts, or other related documents
- Spare copies of your resume
- Letters of recommendation
- List of references appropriate for the job
- Your 60-Second Commercial summarizing your qualification for the job
- If reapplying for federal service OF612 or federal resume and SF 50

Unemployment and Unemployment Benefits

Unemployment Insurance is intended to provide partial income replacement for those who become unemployed through no fault of their own. These benefits are a temporary source of income while the unemployed individual is seeking work, or in authorized cases, attending training. Request for benefits can be filed over the phone or on-line. Benefits are received weekly. In Washington State, the maximum weekly benefit amount is $560. The minimum is $155. No one who is eligible for benefits will receive less than this, regardless of his or her earnings. For additional information please go to the Unemployment Benefits/Washington State website.

Unemployment in Snohomish County is currently at the 10% mark as of June 2009. This rate is expected to go up slightly over the next 9 – 12 months before economic recovery efforts begin to take effect. The tight labor market has encouraged many people to go back to school to further their educations and learn new skills to prepare themselves for the expected economic recovery. This has resulted in a record number of new students entering local colleges and universities.

Emergency Assistance

Planning for Emergencies

Emergencies can happen anytime, anywhere. An emergency is by definition an unexpected and sudden event. The listed resources can assist in all of these situations but the preparation is very different for each. In the military, there is another emergency we should be aware of, command emergencies. There are three times we should be prepared for emergencies, when traveling, when at work and when at home.

Travel Emergencies

Travel in the Washington can lead to many emergency situations, from sudden snow storms to flash floods. Remember to always have an emergency contact card in your possession. Plan your trip and follow your plan.

Communication is critical in an emergency. While traveling, it is important to have contact information on a card, to include family members, gaining and losing command, insurance companies, roadside assistance, and emergency relief numbers (American Red Cross, 211, Military Onesource). It is a good idea to have any pertinent medical information on the card as well, such as allergies to medicines, and foods, medical conditions like diabetes). It is recommended to have this information on a small card in several convenient locations (i.e. the glove compartment of the car, wallet and/or purse).

Make sure you have appropriate travel emergency supplies with you, whether traveling by car, boat, plane, train or however you travel. Public transportation will normally have first aid kits and some supplies for break-down in isolated places. But they won't have medicines and materials unique to your personal needs. If you'd like a list of emergency kits for your person, car, home or family, there are several web sites that contain these lists. You can also visit your local Fleet and Family Support Center, American Red Cross or other local resources. But, like insurance, you have to have it before you need it.

Emergencies at Home

Home preparedness should be a priority for all individuals. Remember to plan for basic needs: food, clothing, shelter. Being prepared before the emergency can help you resettle afterwards. All important documents should be safeguarded and protected. Being prepared is not hard, just smart.

Preparing for emergencies at home requires more planning, mainly because home emergencies can vary widely. They can be anything from an in-home emergency like a personal injury or limited damage to your home, to a Local, Regional, State or Country emergency, like a pandemic, earth quake, flood, industrial accident or terrorist attack. In some cases, you may need to shelter in place. In others, you may need to evacuate quickly. As in travel emergencies, you must be prepared before the event takes place. That means having a kit, knowing how to communicate, and having and practicing a plan with all family members involved. Have contact information readily available by writing it down on your emergency contact card and also making it part of your emergency kit.

Work Preparedness

Having a work preparedness plan is simple. Think about whom you will contact in case of an emergency and what it will take for you to complete your work from home for a few days.

Command Emergencies

Once again, communication is the key. As the military member, you should ensure all emergency contact information is accurate and current on the Navy Family Accountability and Assessment System (NFAAS). To access NFAAS, click here. The family should be aware of how to respond to command emergencies and it's up to the command to develop contingency plans. Your Command Ombudsman and possibly your command Family Readiness Group may be an integral part in assisting your family in an emergency.

Emergency Assistance Organizations

Being prepared does not have to be a solitary task. There are many organizations that are designed to help before during and after emergencies.

Legal Assistance

Navy Legal Services Office (NLSO) Region Pacific Northwest

General

Legal assistance is an authorized service provided to active duty and retired service members and their dependents, as well as certain reserve components and other selected personnel. All eligible personnel will be required to show proper military identification. The primary focus is on active duty (including recalled reservists) service members facing deployment in the immediate future. On rare occasions, it may be necessary to curtail legal services to non-deployers for brief periods of time, if an emergency situation arises where immediate services must be provided to large numbers of deploying personnel. NLSO NW does impose a uniform requirement for active duty personnel; they must wear uniform of the day.

At its conclusion, you may consult with an attorney and submit an input regarding the contents of your will and any other estate planning document. You will then generally be asked to return to execute your will and associated documents, if any.

Deployment Support

Family Deployment Support

If PCSing and arriving to a command or unit that is currently deployed, you will, upon arrival to Naval Station Everett, report to the Temporary Personnel Unit (TPU) Attachment Everett.

If you have dependents and your unit is deployable, there are certain preparations you must make before you deploy. If you are PCSing to Everett and your unit is currently deployed, all or most of these preparations must be completed either before you arrive or immediately after arrival. Several of these items should be made before you report to your deployed command. Note: Every person's situation is unique. This list is only a guideline and may/may not contain items that pertain to your situation. A list of these items is as follows:

Communication

Communication is the key to any successful relationship. Consider having activated e-mail accounts to ensure a communication connection exists between the deployed service member and dependents. Yahoo, Hotmail and many other Internet programs provide free e-mail service. An e-mail account allows the transfer of voice, photos, documents and, electronic letters, to name a few. Best of all, the service can be free. The only drawback is to have a computer with Internet connectivity. Your Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC), MWR, local library, Navy College, etc., can provide this, usually at no cost. Most cell phones provide only limited service and can be expensive when communicating between home and a deployed area. Postal service can deliver a myriad of items, including "care packages", original documents, photos, pictures, children's homework, food, etc. This could take a week or more for delivery and postage can be expensive. In any situation, ensure as many ways of communicating as possible and try to communicate frequently.

Medical

For your own peace-of-mind, ensure all dependents are connected to local Tricare facilities. You should, at a minimum, apply for local Tricare services for your dependants, update DEERS and ensure ID cards won't expire during the deployment. If there is a dependent with special educational, mental or medical needs, you should contact your Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) Coordinator before leaving your current duty station, to arrange for current services to continue after you relocate. The EFMP Coordinator is usually located at each military medical treatment facility (MTF). If you are unsure of how to contact your local EFMP Coordinator, contact your local FFSC, MTF or call our EFMP Coordinator at DSN 312-727-4069 or 425-304-4069.

Legal

If married, at a minimum, your spouse needs to have appropriate Powers of Attorney (POA). You should contact your local Navy Legal Services Office (NLSO) before leaving your current duty station. NLSO can provide many other legal services and should be consulted before PCSing and/or deploying. You may need to contact the Everett NLSO either before or shortly after you arrive. The Everett NLSO can be reached at DSN 312-727-4551 or 425-304-4551.

Housing

This is an obvious need for your family and, if at all possible, should be secured before you deploy. Securing most housing will probably entail a credit check, deposits, allotments and signing of rental/lease agreements before housing is secured. The Everett Housing Welcome Center can assist you with this.

Financial

You should never deploy without first arranging adequate financial support for your dependents. Arrangements can be made via your bank and/or disbursing office. There is a Navy Federal Credit Union located at the Everett Family Support Complex. Contact your local disbursing office before PCSing if you have questions about this. For emergency financial situations before or after PCSing to Everett, contact your local Navy and Marine Corps Relief Society (NMCRS) for assistance. While traveling, you should contact the nearest American Red Cross (ARC) for emergency funds.

Additional Things to Consider

- Auto storage/registration
- Utility and telephone hook-ups
- School registration
- How to contact the command Ombudsman (all deployed units should have one).
- Receipt and/or storage of Household Goods (HHG) (if the service member is not available to receive shipment of HHG, the spouse may need to do so and will probably need a POA).

- A Family Care Plan to ensure legal, financial, guardianship and medical care will be provided in emergency situations.

The Navy Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC) offers a variety of services to you and your family. Pre and Post deployment briefs are provided several times during the month in either individual, group or family sessions. Counselors are also available for both adults and children to assist during these time as well. Chaplains are also available if needed.

GSA

If you are arriving to the area prior to a GSA assignment, please check in with the Fleet and Family Deployment/Mobilization Coordinator.
